MESIFTA TALMUDICAL SEMINARY

RABBI SOLOMON HEIMAN

ז"ל

A Tribute

Dec. 3rd, 1944, will be remembered by the Jewish nation as one of sorrow and affliction because on that day, Rabbi Schloime Heiman, the Rosh Yeshiva of the Mesifta Torah Vadaath, passed from this world. His loss will be felt, not only by the students of the Mesifta, but by the entire Jewish nation because all of us, directly or indirectly, are beneficiaries of his greatness.

Great men usually make us aware of their greatness and we constantly feel that there is a great gap separating us from them; but Rav Schloime was truly great and yet like a father and friend. He radiated warmth and kindness. His sweet smile and kind words gladdened our hearts. His wise and noble thoughts enriched our minds. Some of us, perhaps, were unaware of the tender and good "Rebi" we possessed. Only now, after his death, when we keenly feel our great loss, do we all realize what a heavenly personage we had with us. Rav Shloime was a perfect image of "Yiddishkeit" and "Yiras Shomayim," a walking "Shulchan Aruch," and a possessor of so much Talmudical knowledge, that few in this world can compare with him.

Let us be consoled by the thought that, actually our beloved teacher has not died, because the Torah and "midos which his many disciples learned from him will live with us eternally. Let us resolve to strive with all our might to perpetuate all the spiritual guidance which we received from our "Rosh Yeshiva."

GROSS, MORRIS B.

Here is one of our editors three
He's responsible for the SCROLL you see
A compliment this was meant to be
We're sorry, if you can't agree.

GRUBERGER, PHILIP

A fellow who comes to Hebrew late,
Learning Gemorrah is his best trait,
He did a service to the school,
By ruling the book room with iron rule.

HALPERN, DAVID

Turn back a mite, there you'll see
Dave as one of the Editors three
He's not the one to brag or boast
So it's up to us to give him a toast.

JACOBS, JULIUS

When Jacobs to this country came
He couldn't speak a word,
And now he uses adjectives
The teachers haven't heard.

★ On Leave with the Armed Forces

✓ ADLER, MURRY

A fellow like "Red" is hard to find
A joke or two he doesn't mind,
Basketball is his favorite game,
In that field he'll reach his fame.

✓ BERGER, BERNARD

Official typist for the Scroll,
In marks he hits the honor roll.
In Brooklyn he will ply his trade
We're sure that he will make the grade.

✓ CHARNASS, HERBERT

chaim

This young man can learn Gemorah
He's not at all bad at grasping a
Svorrah
And about him it has been said
That in Rav Pam's class he has a head.

✓ CHIEL, SAMUEL

The first editor of the G. O. Voice
As all around fellow he is our choice
In Talmud, English and all the rest,
He's always there among the best.

COHEN, HENRY

Another lad from Canada
Hits the student's eye,
His name is Henry Cohen
And he is some swell guy.

DACHS, HAROLD

Dachs shows a lot of pep
His flashy clothes have gained a rep.
And, we hope, on some future date
That he will a salesman make.

DESSER, EDGAR

Desser is a wise guy
In the class of English eight
And Mister Jaffe NEVER hollers
When Desser comes in late.

DIAMOND, STANLEY

Stanley is a quiet fellow
Who's got plenty on the ball
He's going to Yeshiva College
Where we are sure he will never fail.

DUKELSKY, ALBERT

A third boy from Chicago
Is graduating this term
It's Dukelsky, Nadóff and Fishbein.
The Chicago Rabbis' firm.

DEITCHER, LAWRENCE

From far off Canada
Deitcher put in his bid
He hopes to become an Engineer.
Good Luck to the Canada Kid

DOMBROFF, HARVEY H.

Harvey is one who'll never tire,
To be a writer is his desire,
Though in sports he does excell
Harvey's head will never swell.

ETTINGER, JACOB

Sharp as a matzoh, twice as slick
His weight in wildcats he can lick
Anything wrong in the office today
Tell ETTY, he'll fix it right away.

KAPLAN, ELI M.

✓ Kaplan is a handsome lad
So goes the student's rumor,
But the good thing about him is,
His wonderful sense of humor.

KESTENBAUM, EPHRAIM

✓ Ephraim with his perpetual grin
Is always with the bosses
But when it comes to politics
YIPE!!!

KESTENBAUM, MENASHE

Deceased
A business manager full of zest
In making friends he's of the best,
Always ready with a smile,
He makes one feel that life's worth while.

KLITENICK, AARON

✓ Aaron Klitenick is very quiet,
He's not the one to incite a riot,
At Jewish Studies, he's one of the best,
For when it comes to Torah, he's got zest.

NADOFF, BENJAMIN

\ Nadoff from Chicago came
To visit our quaint town,
In the Mesifita he earned his fame
For writing upside down.

SCHREIER, MAX

His marks are high, he knows his stuff,
In Talmud, too, he'll call your bluff.
He's a fellow with plenty of knowledge,
You'll find him now at the Yeshiva
College.

SCHWARTZ, EMMANUEL

Geometry, Trigonometry, are this boy's meat
When it comes to math he's got us
all beat
An accountant he will strive to be
His future we can guarantee.

SPIEGEL, MOISHE

Here's a toast to Spiegel
A Masmid Godol is he.
But as a fiction writer
There is no possibility.

LERER, MURRAY

A pianist is in our midst
With character and finesse
His name is Murray Lerer
And he is sure to be a success.

LIPTON, ALVIN

First vice president of our "G. O."
An editor too — just goes to show
What a bright young man Y. C.
will get
For he his heart on there has set.

MINES, ZACHARY

He is pretty handy with his voice
At his piano playing you will rejoice
But Zachary Mines is at his best
When learning Torah with fire and zest.

MOSESON, SIDNEY

In the Mesifita day and night
He learns from morn till candle light
Sheik is the ELUI of the class
A chance to learn he won't let pass.

FENDEL, ZACHARY

✓ Future leader he will be,
This no one can deny
This President of the "G. O."
Is sure to go quite high.

FRIEDMAN, MAURICE

✓ Here's to the artist of the class
His drawing we cannot surpass
In fact he our cover drew,
We think it's pretty good—don't you?

FROMMER, SEYMOUR

Decease
A Leader in the Rabinante
Is Frommer's future aim
Good luck to you dear Seymour
You're on the road to fame.

GREENBERG, ISRAEL

✓ Blondy an instructor
Of sports he wants to be
He'll teach all types of games
And collect a tidy fee.

WEILAND, EPHRIAM

This studious fellow from Belgium came
In the Mesifita he's got some name
Although he's quite still and a bit shy
His laurels we praise up to the sky

WELFELD, MAX

Maxie is a little guy
Who hopes to go to the City,
We all wish him the best of luck,
"Drop a nickel in the Kitty"

WOLF, WILLIAM

One of the best in secular studies
In Gemorah too he trims his buddies
That's not all, he's a nice guy too
We'd like to say "Hat's off to you."

ZAHN, SEYMOUR

A true picture of timidity
He is a student of divinity
In school he may not hit ninety-five
But in Ray Rivkins class, he's in the upper five.
