DAVIS, MAYIR

From Brighton to us Mayir came,
On our court he has won fame.
But in Torah a reputation he'll make.
We wish him luck for our people's sake.

DOLINGER, MAX

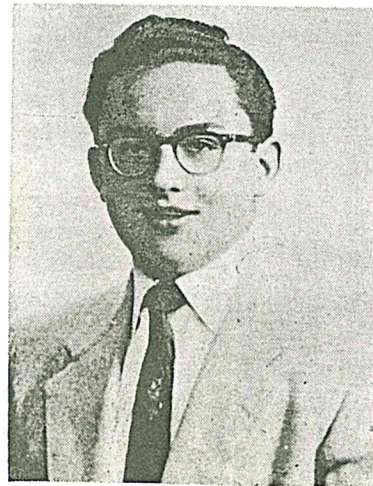

✓ That Max came to our school so late,
Is really quite a shame.
But now that he is here
We are very glad he came.

LEVENE, ARNOLD

About Arnold, our friend, there is much to be said,
The Torah he'll learn, his wisdom he'll spread.
Quick and sharp-witted is his style,
Getting to know him is worth the while.

LEVINE, SHEPPARD

Sheppy's success we can surely foretell,
For there is no field in which he doesn't excel.
Getting high marks he never stops,
In everything he does he's really tops.

Rabbi MOROWITZ, NORMAN

Norman is the spark of every debate,
We don't have to worry about his fate
For to Israel he will go,
And there his genius he will show.

TABACHNIK, LEONARD

As G. O. president he was great,
With his chaverim he does highly rate.
His reason always being sound,
To a great future he is bound.

VILENSKY, ARTHUR

Arthur is a scholar, as we can readily see,
He's Wilkes-Barre's gift to MTV.
His earnest efforts make him a lad
Whose departure leaves us rather sad.

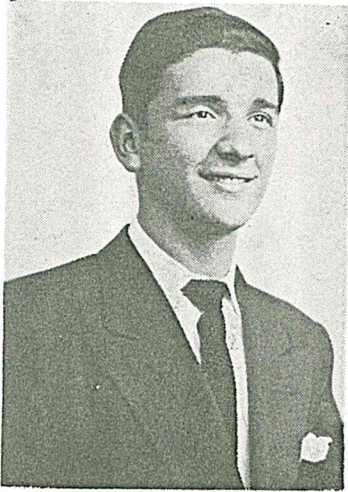

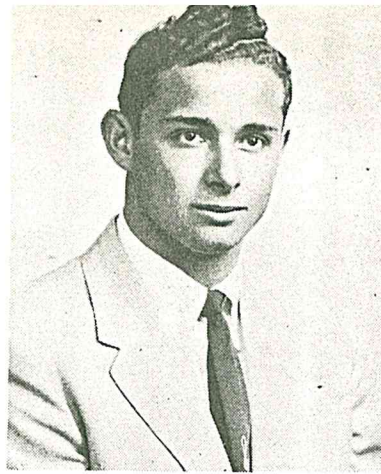

Rabbi

ZIMAND, EPHRAIM

A really fine fellow whom everyone admires,
We're sure he'll attain whatever he desires.
Basketball and S. P.'S are right down his lane,
He's destined to achieve honor and fame.
